

Plan for Short Memoir

Name Danny

Working Title: Golf Tournament

Working Lead: To me golf tournaments are so lively, yet peaceful, almost like a lawyer in Las Vegas.

Purpose of Memoir: winning the golf tournament—my dream and how it changed how other golfers saw me.

The one memory and related details:

To show that feeling of triumph I had when I started winning and won. It all began in the clutch—that day I won golf changed from just fun and entertainment to being a winner. Everyone will want to play with me now.

One or two main people: give details about each person.

Kyle:--Kyle, my opponent, didn't shoot his best.

Me—I'm a bit cocky because my game changed that day—as Kyle lost, I kept hitting the ball great until I won.

Where you plan to end the memoir and why you chose that point?

Imagining what other golfers would say after I won the tournament.
