

Self-Evaluation for Persuasive Essay

Name Kate

Date 3/7

Directions: Respond to each question/prompt with as much detail as you can.

List two to four things you learned about writing a persuasive essay.

I learned a lot of different ways to write an introduction and a conclusion. I also learned the most effective ways to persuade someone.

How did working with a partner help you?

It was motivating, and my partner told me some things about my writing that I hadn't seen or noticed.

How did the lessons on leads and endings for persuasive essays help you?

For the lead, now I know several ways to grab someone's attention. For the ending, I learned how to end my writing in a way that leaves the reader still thinking about it.

How do you think what you learned and practiced with a persuasive essay help you with taking the writing test SOL?

You can write in a way that will make the people reading it like it and agree with what the essay says.
