

Peer-Editing For Persuasive Essay

Name of Peer Editor Kate!

Name of Student Whose Paper You are Editing Isaac!

Directions:

1. For each section you read, find something positive to say.
2. Put suggestions in the form of a question. For example: Can you add details to your lead paragraph? Can you make your opinion clearer? More Interesting? Can your conclusion use a persuasive technique? Can you add specific details to the examples for?

Provide feedback on:

The title: not very catchy!
gets the point across!
alliteration? needs an exclamation mark!
Could it be more exciting?

The lead paragraph:
very exciting! - needs exclamation marks! (!!!!)
punctuation!
great details! love the "there isn't a soccer team" part!
Will non-soccer players be able to understand this?

The two points for the position:
What about students who don't want to play soccer or go to games?
2nd reason - not really motivating!

How the writer rebutted the opposing point:

very good!
What type of fundraisers?

The concluding paragraph:

very motivating!
very exciting! - needs exclamation marks!
Could you possibly put exclamation marks in it?
