

Writing an Introduction and a Conclusion

- Take notes for the opening of your introduction on your writing plan.
- Organize these notes into a few sentences and end the introduction with the thesis statement.
- Take notes for the conclusion on your writing plan. Think of an idea to include that stretches the reader beyond summarizing the thesis.
- Write the conclusion.